MLK Day Flier

Just in time for America's annual January lovefest for the "Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Junior," National Alliance Media Director Kevin Alfred Strom has added a new flier to our arsenal that is perfect for distribution in the coming month. This is a fully updated version of the popular American Dissident Voices broadcast on the fraudulent "civil rights leader," and has a catchy new title that will appeal to freedom-loving Whites. This flier has had a tremendous impact wherever it has been made available to the public, generating copious media coverage for the Alliance. A printed, tri-fold version of the flier is enclosed with this issue of the BULLETIN, and pre-printed copies are available from the National Office for $24 for 100 fliers. Write to the National Office for pricing on larger quantities if desired.

You can print them yourself, too: Just as with other National Alliance fliers, ads, and other recruiting materials, you can download a high-resolution PDF

NO KING OVER US

The Truth About Martin Luther King

file — the same one we use — and print and fold them yourself. If you don't want to use your own printer, any local print shop should be able to do an excellent job when given the PDF file by you, either via email or on a thumb drive. The url to download your own copy of any National Alliance flier is:

The size of the flier, as with the last one, is 8.5 x 11 inches and it is designed to be folded as a C-type tri-fold.

American Dissident Voices Audio Archive

For two weeks during the month of December Chairman William White Williams and an assistant methodically worked every day, sorting through nearly 600 master audiotapes of American Dissident Voices (ADV) broadcasts that were recorded prior to Dr. Pierce's death in 2002. These tapes were salvaged from almost certain loss by Chairman Williams in 2014, who feared that they might be destroyed or fall into the wrong hands — the hands of those intent on suppressing our message.

Approximately 300 digital recordings of Dr. Pierce's speeches and ADV broadcasts were put on the Internet during the Gliebe/Walker years, when National Alliance media had collapsed and even the front pages of our Web sites stopped functioning, by someone working with the Internet Archive, and they have received wide distribution by White people hungry for the National Alliance message through the teachings of our organization's founder. Many of these unauthorized recordings were severely flawed, plagued with distortion and other artifacts, but for a time they were all anybody had.

Over the last three years we have been using digital technology to clean up these old recordings, and bring new recordings to light. We have been offering them, in much higher quality than the "unauthorized versions," via our ongoing Power of Truth mp3-CD series. We will be greatly expanding the series as we go through this treasure trove of material.

We are currently in the process of screening all ADV broadcasts made during the ten year period between 1992 and 2002, and are discovering what we are calling "Dr. Pierce's lost basement tapes." We expect to uncover a good number of long-lost ADV shows, both by Dr. Pierce and by Mr. Strom, that have long been buried. These recordings, being analogue master recordings, are of better quality even than the early digital recordings of the time, and far exceed the quality of even the cleaned-up digital recordings available heretofore. The tapes will be digitized with care and preserved for sharing with our people. Expect new offerings soon, many of which have never been heard on CD or been available on the Internet before — never heard, in fact, since they were first broadcast over the air.

Report From the Land

December was a slow month here on The Land. There were several subzero cold snaps, but we haven't had a significant snow. On December 21 (Winter Solstice) Laura Lee and I watched the sun come up in the morning and set in the evening, enacting what is perhaps the oldest tradition of White men and women. The shortest day of the year has been observed by our people for so long that it's really impossible to know how many centuries it's been.

Chairman Williams was here earlier in the month and was able to leave with some venison taken from The Land. He also dropped off 100 of our new gun fliers, among other things. Since it is cold outside I asked a few of our local supporters if they would like to get together for an activism project. Two Internet sites, gunbroker.com and gunsamerica.com, both list Federal Firearms License (FFL) holders in your area on their Web sites. These are people who are serious about guns, and are likely to be more aware of political realities than the average White American.

The main building on The Land as last year's Winter approached: Now that David and Laura Lee are living and working on our campus, we have gardens, an apiary, chickens, a refurbished residence, trimmed trees, and a growing community of supporters there. The place where Dr. Pierce built, worked, wrote, and spoke has now become a hub of community-building and outreach to our people once again.

We have envelopes and 100 First Class stamps that were donated. Chairman Williams is having our Media Director draft a cover letter to include and we are also enclosing a "They Hate Us" flier. I worked in the gun industry, in gun shops, and around shooters for the past ten years. This Alliance material will upset a few Chosenites but most people with FFLs are ready for this information — if they don't see things our way already. This is an excellent, inexpensive outreach project for those isolated members who are not a part of a local group. These fliers will make it around to the gun store counters and ranges to generate our kind of serious discussions. Let's start 2017 off with a group activism project! — Dave Pringle, Chief of Staff, West Virginia National Alliance campus

Reaching Out to the Like-Minded

Mailings, such as Mr. Pringle's above, may seem old-fashioned in this age of smartphones and social media, but they are effective for targeting high-awareness subgroups among our Folk. The National Office was provided with an old mailing list of subscribers to George Dietz's Liberty Bell magazine. Liberty Bell was the main venue in which the works of both Dr. Revilo Oliver — the classicist and writer who helped Dr. Pierce found the Alliance — and Joseph Pryce — who created the music of Call of the Blood and was a National Office staffer and dedicated supporter — were published for many years. Liberty Bell also republished many National Vanguard articles over the years, including those by William Pierce and Kevin Strom.

Lana Williams went through the entire list of 800-plus names and addresses, checking them against current postal databases, which eliminated nearly half of the people whose addresses are no longer valid, and adding current mailing information for many who have moved. There was significant overlap between Liberty Bell subscribers and National Alliance members before Liberty Bell ceased publication in 1999. On 20 December each person on the cleaned-up list was mailed a cover note with the Alliance's Web site information, an introductory "we're back!" National Alliance BULLETIN, and a "Why They Want to Disarm You" flier. Thanks to Lana and our other dedicated supporters, the word is now getting out to a proven group of concerned Whites about the renewed National Alliance.

Mailing lists are available of people who may be responsive to the Alliance message. For example, the group of FFL gun dealers that David Pringle is targeting, done on an even larger scale, could generate inquiries that would then lead to new Alliance supporters. We encourage you to consider this sort of outreach activity. Several of our Local Units in days past had their own bulk mail permits for reduced rates on large Second Class bulk mailings. There are also ways to reach people with the Alliance message through Internet e-lists and social media. Help us to know how to use these new media most effectively. The goal is to generate new supporters. That is Alliance-building!

Correspondence

Chairman Williams: Enclosed is a $720 money order for the following: one year's dues @ $20 per month, in advance (January through December 2017), for the three members listed, plus an additional $45 that was collected at our November meeting. My completed Membership Survey is also enclosed. — M.J., Massachusetts

Chairman Williams responds: We are so appreciative of the work you New England National Alliance members are doing for our organization, M.J. The more members and supporters who pay ahead their 2017 dues like this, the better off we will be financially at the beginning of this new year. We now have almost a 40% response from members completing and returning the Membership Surveys we mailed out with the October BULLETIN, and more are coming in. These completed survey forms are most helpful in assessing how we can best use our "human material" — those unselfish, noble few who have joined their efforts to ours — to save our race.

Chairman Williams: I just received the November BULLETIN with the included flier about gun control, a subject near and dear to me. I'm ordering a hundred of them and will include one in with some of the Christmas cards that we will be mailing out — not all, obviously, but to those who are likely to be receptive to the information. Also, whenever I go into a convenience store I look through the cases of beer like I'm making up my mind, all the while sliding the folded up fliers into the cases — on the heavy cardboard cases of bottles, through that slit of an opening on top; and, with the "suitcases" of canned beer, through the carry handle opening. I figure that way when Mr. Whiteman Sixpack gets to his adult refreshment, he might actually become somewhat aware. Be well, — C.M., West Virginia

Gentlemen: National Vanguard was practically the only Web site that knew well in advance that Trump, as the nominee for the Presidency, was not the man to share the values of racially conscious White people. Very early in the competition, National Vanguard was the one lone wolf howling the dark truth about Trump in the middle of the night. And now with Trump's choices for his administration, National Vanguard has had its intuitions and perspectives verified and validated.

All I can say is thank you for holding strong and knowing the historical facts about the US and the Jews as well as you do. Maybe others can take courage from this sad state of affairs regarding Trump and will seek out better perspectives and more consistent and reliable principles here at National Vanguard than are available through other alternative voices online, which provide only tinsel fantasies of change that have no substance, no grounding in political realities. I say again, the Web site that was the earliest in calling out the trumpery behind Trump was National Vanguard. — J.V., via nationalvanguard.org

Dear National Office: Please note that I am 86 years old; so I don't care to be designated a member — that would be fine if I were 46. I will send, periodically, as much money as I can. The ignorance of the American public is appalling!

THIS IS the handsome gift sent to us by M.F. in Wisconsin: a German radio from the National Socialist period that doubtless carried the voice of Adolf Hitler during the greatest conflict of the last century. It sits now a few steps away from the studio where our American Dissident Voices programs are currently recorded.

Thanks for all you do to enlighten them with necessary truths. Surely, Chairman Williams, I hope you can soon get things straightened out so that you can function normally. What a mess you have had to plow through! — B.M., Mississippi

Dear Mr. Williams, I found this enclosed radio receiver at a ham radio swap fest years ago. It is a German Kleinempfänger DKE 38, in a beautiful and advanced-for-its-time bakelite case, complete with National Socialist eagle on the front panel. The documentation I am including with the radio is from the Web. An additional search may provide more. I am assuming that you will have a museum some day and this will fit in it. After Dr. Pierce died I sent written notice to the powers that be that I was going with Kevin Strom when he split from Gliebe and Walker in 2005. I was thankful to see Kevin and you return to the Internet. It's nice that you are now back and the National Vanguard Web site runs right along with the big dogs! I do not want anything for this radio and the other material;

this is my way of showing my appreciation for all those American Dissident Voices radio shows and now your new direction(s). He was right! — M.F., Wisconsin

Chairman Williams responds: Thank you so much for donating this rare and historically significant radio, M.F. It is appreciated by all of us, especially by Mr. Strom who is a radio aficionado. It will be cared for and preserved.

B.M. in Mississippi, your donation and support is also very much appreciated. The "mess I've had to plow through" is not fun, but solving messy problems and fighting off legal challenges is a necessary part of our struggle that can't be avoided. Rather than write another usual monthly update about the legal soap opera we are dealing with, I'll give a summary here of where we stand at the end of 2016. As expected, hostile West Virginia neighbor and former Alliance employee Garland Corse appealed the judge's 7 December order compelling her to return more than $2,000 worth of property that she stole from our WV headquarters. No date has been set for her appeal as this issue of the BULLETIN goes to press. Nor has a new date been set to hear my own appeal of the misdemeanor assault conviction that my accuser — none other than Garland Corse, again — that had been docketed for 15 December. Corse demanded a Special Prosecutor from another county be named to prosecute my appeal because she doesn't think that the local prosecutor will convict me again. The Pocahontas County Prosecutor's Office gladly recused itself and now a Special Prosecutor has been named, but no date has been reset for a trial. Perhaps there will be more to report on these pesky WV matters next month. By 7 January a Commonwealth of Virginia judge will have decided whether or not to grant the Alliance's motion to dismiss another civil lawsuit that was filed against the National Alliance and against me by John McLaughlin. It should be noted again that Plaintiff-come lately John McLaughlin has employed Garland Corse as his "Executive Administrative Assistant" as well as his "Legal Liaison" since I terminated her more than a year ago. It's also notable that the NARRG co-plaintiffs who lost their own lawsuit against the Alliance are now publicly supporting the McLaughlin case.

Commentary by Chairman William White Williams

Small Victories Add Up

Political prisoner Richard Scutari, who has been incarcerated for the past 31 years, wrote and requested a book — and was sent three books by me in October. Those books were returned to me by an overzealous, imperious Bureau of Prisons (BOP) mail room clerk who, when reached by telephone, told me that anything mailed into her "Pollock Federal Correctional Complex" in Louisiana by the National Alliance or National Vanguard Books would be rejected. These bureaucrats, however, have rules and procedures they must follow and this particular civil servant was way out of line with her decision to reject mail to Richard. I got hold of the BOP's rule book and wrote to the warden of that facility in protest of his mail room attendant's inappropriate actions imposed against inmate Scutari. The warden then had 30 days to respond. On the 30th day the warden's "executive assistant" Taneesha called me, telling me to re-send the books and that there had been a misunderstanding. So I re-sent the books to Richard with a short note stating that I had "gone over the mail room clerk's head" to the warden. We received this in a letter from Mr. Scutari a few days later: "They [the books] arrived safe and sound. Your email to the Warden must have shaken things up..." Later I mailed Richard a copy of my email to the warden to show him how I'd been working on the problem. He already had received the books when he got my second letter, but had to attend a scheduled "special investigation" hearing on November 22 as a result of those books having been returned to the publisher. Richard wrote me a letter on three days later, saying:

Thanks for the latest BULLETIN and the copy of the email that you had sent to the warden. All I can say about the email is — WOW! I received it this past Wednesday, 11/23, and it explained the conversation I'd had the day before with Special Investigations. I was told they were going to contact you and ask you to re-send the books. They did not mention anything to me about your email to the warden. As I said, the copy of that email you sent to me explained a lot...

It is the small legal victories that are sometimes the sweetest.

Another interesting development on the legal front is how a pro-Alliance activist who is an attorney licensed in Nevada and Oregon has been sending emails to numerous attorneys in Oregon, telling them about the Alliance and encouraging them to step forward to advance White interests. He introduced himself to his colleagues thusly:

My name is Tadas G. Arlauskas. I am interested in White civil rights ideas and subjects regarding the preservation of the White race. I would like to form a think tank interested in these types of theories and/or political ideas...

The attachment in Mr. Arlauskas' email sends recipients to our national-vanguard.org online magazine and promotes the National Alliance in a professional manner. Amazingly, media reporting on this outreach describe our Alliance like this, quoting our own membership application at some length, as if this mere description should be enough to "horrify" all their readers — a serious miscalculation:

The National Alliance is a Whites-only organization. "No homosexual or bisexual person, no person actively addicted to alcohol or to an illegal drug, no person with a non-White spouse or a non-White dependent, and, except in extraordinary circumstances, no person currently confined in a penal institution may be a member."

How many White men and women these days would like to be part of a determined separatist community with simple, straightforward eligibility requirements like those? Answer: Lots of them.

A couple of easily offended, sissified attorneys protested to the Oregon State Bar about Mr. Arlauskas' mailing, claiming "...this kind of behavior is prejudicial to the administration of justice and reflects negatively on the integrity of the profession in Oregon by openly advocating for discrimination (or worse) against minority races..."

The Oregon State Bar disagreed with the complainants, ruling that Mr. Arlauskas was "within his rights to advocate for that viewpoint without implicating our rules of professional conduct." That's a win for free thought, for free speech, for free association, and for what's left of the integrity of Oregon lawyers.

Tadas Arlauskas has purchased many hundreds of National Alliance business cards. He's also purchased the Building a New White World booklet in bulk quantities. We only need 10,000 more determined, creative, confident activists like Tadas spreading the National Alliance's message and the war will be half won.
